1. [REDACTED] Sam Scott on the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff indicated Senator Dodd had read a recent clipping from BUSINESS WEEK which refers to one Jerome Feldman as president of the National Patent Development Corporation having recently signed a contract in Moscow with Amtorg for licensing certain products which Feldman in turn hoped to sell to American business firms. Scott was interested in the general background of the Soviet government attempting to trade in patents and licenses.

2. [REDACTED] Talked with Boyd Crawford, House Foreign Affairs Committee, and advised him that we regarded [REDACTED] [REDACTED] as an excellent employee whom we regretted to lose but that if they could offer her a better position on the staff certainly we would not raise any objection.

3. [REDACTED] I delivered to Sam Crosby, House Appropriations Committee staff, a blind memorandum which included some budgetary figures for [REDACTED]. I explained to Crosby that in a Committee session with Henry Loemis of USIA, Congressman John J. Rooney (D., N.Y.) asked Loemis for the [REDACTED] budget figures. At that time, Loemis indicated that he did not have this figure but would see if he could provide it for the Congressman's information. I further explained that subsequent to this, Mr. Warner and Mr. Donald J. Irwin, General Counsel of USIA, had discussed the matter and had agreed that USIA would merely inform Congressman Rooney that CIA budget figures were provided directly to the Chairman and that this information would be provided directly to the Committee by the Agency. Mr. Crosby seemed to agree with this approach and said he would contact Congressman Rooney's staff man on it.
